

Question for written answer E-008552/2015
to the Commission

Rule 130

Filiz Hyusmenova (ALDE)

Subject: Privacy and data protection for EU citizens

Considering the legislative proposals for introducing mass data collection in some Member States, how would the Commission ensure consistency with its own legislation and compliance with Court of Justice case law with regard to safeguarding the rights of EU citizens, in particular the right to privacy and the protection of personal data?