Subject: What more can the European Fisheries Control Agency do to have a workforce that is representative of EU citizens?

Previously, the Commission has stated that 'the Commission strives to be representative of the increasingly diverse European citizens it serves' (response to Written Questions E-008102/14, E-007850/14 and E-007851/14).

How does the European Fisheries Control Agency think it's currently doing on having a workforce that is representative of EU citizens?

What more can the European Fisheries Control Agency do to be more representative of EU citizens?
