

Question for written answer E-009578/2015
to the Commission
Rule 130
Hugues Bayet (S&D)

Subject: Human rights violations in eastern Ukraine

A United Nations (UN) report has revealed new serious human rights violations in eastern Ukraine. According to this report, there were 6 417 people killed and 15 962 people injured between mid-April 2014 and 30 May 2015.

In addition, the report mentions 'shelling, executions, arbitrary and illegal detentions, torture, ill-treatment, human trafficking and a lack of justice and accountability'.

1. What is the Commission's reaction to these extremely serious findings?
2. What initiatives can the international community implement to prosecute the perpetrators of such atrocities?