Subject: ACP-EU Dialogue on migration and development

In July 2014 experts from the EU and the ACP – Africa, Caribbean and Pacific – countries met in Brussels to discuss the problems of trafficking in human beings and smuggling of migrants. Apart from identifying concrete areas of cooperation between these organisations in order to tackle both phenomena, what progress has been made in this regard over the past year?

Is the European Union monitoring whether the points agreed in the Dialogue concerning respect for human rights are being complied with?
