

Question for written answer E-009963/2015
to the Commission
Rule 130
Edouard Ferrand (ENF)

Subject: The European Union's immigration policy

The ever-deepening crisis at the border between France and Italy shows that the Schengen agreements represent a legal and physical breach which is allowing large-scale illegal immigration.

Does the Commission advocate that the Schengen agreements be suspended and, in the long run, definitively reviewed?
