

Question for written answer E-010216/2015
to the Commission
Rule 130
Richard Sulík (ECR)

Subject: Comprehensive REFIT in statistics

The collection of statistics at European level creates various forms of red tape – especially for businesses – in the individual Member States, with European statistics legislation a maze of legal regulations.

Apart from steel industry statistics and the integration of social statistics, are there any plans to have the REFIT programme for 2017 and/or subsequent years embrace the comprehensive field of statistics collected at European level?