

Question for written answer E-010262/2015
to the Commission
Rule 130
Jonathan Arnott (EFDD)

Subject: Returns Directive - Domestic law

There exists in EU law means by which illegal immigrants can be removed from EU territory if they are found to have broken EU migration law (Directive 2008/115/EC).

Could the Commission please provide details of whether any Member States have transposed this into their own domestic law?

How many Member States have done so, and which?
