Subject: VP/HR - Cooperation with Jordan

This June saw the publication of a report evaluating the European Union's cooperation with the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan between 2007 and 2013. The purpose of this evaluation is to provide valid and relevant information in order to improve current relations between Jordan and the European Union.

What are the conclusions of this report with regard to anti-terrorism cooperation and development cooperation?

Based on the report's conclusions, does the High Representative believe that the European Union should reconsider the direction of its relations with Jordan?
