

Question for written answer E-010901/2015
to the Commission

Rule 130

Gabriel Mato (PPE) and Carlos Iturgaiz (PPE)

Subject: Progress in agreements to reduce CO₂ emissions in the EU

According to data published by Eurostat, CO₂ emissions in the EU as a whole fell by 5 % last year as compared with 2013.

This is positive news for the Union aim of reducing emissions and making substantial progress in the fight against climate change.

The agreed strategy marks a commitment to reduce greenhouse gas emissions by 40 % by 2030.

In the Commission's view, has sufficient progress been made towards achieving this target?

What areas is the Commission focusing on to ensure that the target is met?
