

Question for written answer E-011233/2015
to the Commission
Rule 130
Siôn Simon (S&D)

Subject: What more can the Executive Agency for Small and Medium-sized Enterprises (EASME) do to have a workforce that is representative of EU citizens?

The Commission has stated in the past that 'the Commission strives to be representative of the increasingly diverse European citizens it serves' (response to written questions E-008102/14, E-007850/14 and E-007851/14).

How does the Executive Agency for Small and Medium-sized Enterprises (EASME), which falls within the competence of the Commission, think it is currently doing as regards having a workforce that is representative of EU citizens?

What more can the Executive Agency for Small and Medium-sized Enterprises (EASME), which falls within the competence of the Commission, do to be more representative of EU citizens?