

Question for written answer E-011737/2015
to the Commission
Rule 130
Edouard Ferrand (ENF)

Subject: Greece and democracy

The agreement drawn up by the Troika, of which the European Commission is a member, requires the vetting of all legislative acts adopted by Greece. Is this not in contradiction with the inviolable principle of national sovereignty?