

Question for written answer E-012075/2015
to the Commission
Rule 130
Hugues Bayet (S&D)

Subject: More balanced neighbourhood policy advocated by Arab NGOs

The Arab NGO Network for Development has sent the Commission a study on revising the EU's neighbourhood policy.

In the context of the 'Arab revolutions', the NGOs put forward proposals aimed at achieving a better balance in the policy.

They recommend more involvement in the social sphere and the fight against poverty and in integration.

What is the Commission's reaction to the imbalance highlighted and to the action which is proposed?