Subject: Lack of medical screening of migrants

The mayor of Munich has said that the registration of migrants coming to the city is no longer taking place<sup>1</sup>. A natural consequence of this is that the medical screening of migrants is not taking place either, which may pose a threat to both the migrants themselves and to the indigenous population of Munich in particular, but also of Germany and the rest of Europe in general.

What measures does the Commission suggest with a view to solving this problem?
