Subject: Annual report on arms exports

The Sixteenth Annual Report on arms exports, as provided for in Article 8(2) of Council Common Position 2008/944/CFSP, contains standardised information on export licences issued, but it amounts to less than a whole picture of actual arms exports.

1. What steps is the Council taking to lay down rules imposing an obligation on Member States to submit reports giving complete information about the quantity and types of arms exported?
