

Question for written answer E-013962/2015
to the Commission

Rule 130

Takis Hadjigeorgiou (GUE/NGL)

Subject: Progress report on Turkey

Publication of the report on Turkey's progress towards accession (expected to condemn strongly its democratic deficit) is evidently being delayed so as to boost the prospects of the Turkish President and his party at the elections of 1 November.

In view of this:

Does the Commission regard such a move as fair to either the Turkish people or the people of Europe that we represent?
