Subject: Falsified medicines

In the light of the Commission's reply to Written Question E-012903/2015:

1. Can the Commission indicate whether Malta has complied with the Falsified Medicines Directive (2011/62/EU)?
2. Can it state whether a deadline for compliance has been given to Malta to provide the required information on falsified medicines?
3. If this information is not provided, what action will the Commission take to ensure that Malta is honouring its commitments towards the consumers/patients provided for in this directive?
