Subject: Progress of investigation SA.39990 (2014/CP)

According to the Commission's answer to a parliamentary question on this matter, it announced in January 2015 that it was launching an investigation into the Belgian company Ducatt NV. This investigation was initiated following a complaint from a rival of Ducatt and registered under case number SA.39990 (2014/CP).

What is the current state of the investigation and when are the findings due to be published?
