

Question for written answer E-000074/2016
to the Commission
Rule 130
Edouard Ferrand (ENF)

Subject: Unacceptable criticism of the new Polish Government made by the Commission

The new Polish Government, which was formed following perfectly democratic elections, has been the target of recriminations from the Commission. Does the Commission nonetheless intend to permit one of the fundamental principles of democracy, namely sovereignty, to be practised by a nation that is universally recognised as being democratic?