Subject: Number of ISIS terrorists who have infiltrated Europe

According to a number of sources, Rob Wainwright, Director of Europol, told the German newspaper Neue Osnabrücker Zeitung in an interview that between 3000 and 5000 ISIS-trained terrorists are thought to have entered Europe.

1. Can the Commission confirm those figures?
2. Do we have any other information on the matter, in particular how those numbers were calculated, where those terrorists came from, how they entered the EU and how they are being monitored?
