to the Commission
Rule 130
Syed Kamall (ECR)

Subject: Paramjeet Singh

A constituent has written to me regarding the case of Paramjeet Singh, who has been granted asylum in the UK. While on holiday in Portugal, he was arrested, allegedly as a result of a Red Notice from Interpol. He is currently awaiting extradition to India.

My constituent has asked about the legality of the action by the Portuguese authorities.

Could the Commission look into the action taken by the Portuguese authorities, given that Paramjeet Singh was granted asylum in the UK?
