Subject: Sending back unsuccessful asylum seekers

Thomas de Maizière, the German Minister of the Interior, recently met with representatives of the Maghreb states to discuss their alleged refusal to readmit unsuccessful asylum seekers. Austria is also dealing with countries which are unwilling to readmit their own citizens who have been deemed ineligible for asylum.

1. Is the EU supporting Austria, Germany and the other Member States by also putting pressure on the Maghreb states in question?
2. If so, how?
