

Question for written answer E-001962/2016
to the Commission (Vice-President / High Representative)
Rule 130
Edouard Ferrand (ENF)

Subject: VP/HR - Syria: Turkish military interventions against the Kurds

Given the recent Turkish military operations in Syria against the Kurds and in de facto support of the Islamic State, can the High Representative of the European Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy and Vice-President of the European Commission say in what manner she intends to oppose any interference by Turkey with a view to perpetrating acts of war against the Kurdish populations?