

Question for written answer E-002723/2016
to the Commission
Rule 130
Edouard Ferrand (ENF)

Subject: Immigration policy

In the wake of the deadly attacks in Brussels, Polish Prime Minister Beata Szydło recently announced that Poland would no longer take part in the EU's migrant resettlement programme, as the attacks had shown that the Union was now completely unable to handle the migration crisis.

Is the Commission planning to reconsider its immigration policy?