

Question for written answer E-003074/2016
to the Commission
Rule 130
Jørn Dohrmann (ECR)

Subject: Temporary suspension of Schengen cooperation

In the light of the recent bloody terrorist attack in Brussels, I believe consideration should be given to suspending Schengen cooperation until the EU has obtained effective control of its external borders.

This should be done for a period of between 24 and 48 months, depending on how long it takes to establish effective border control.

Is the Commission prepared to consider whether a temporary suspension of Schengen cooperation would create better security for EU citizens?