

Question for written answer E-003418/2016
to the Commission
Rule 130
Sorin Moisă (S&D)

Subject: Radio spectrum

According to the Digital Single Market communication, the Commission plans to create a more harmonised framework for Member States to allocate radio spectrum. In this context, to what extent does the Commission consider it economically feasible to make the allocation at EU level?