

Question for written answer E-003753/2016
to the Commission
Rule 130
Maria Grapini (S&D)

Subject: European Asylum System

Migration proportions are increasing with every passing day, with asylum application numbers skyrocketing in some cases. There are considerable differences in asylum legislation among Member States in terms of the procedure and the reception conditions.

Will the Commission consider rethinking the European Asylum System, in particular the Dublin system?