to the Commission
Rule 130
Edouard Ferrand (ENF)

Subject: TTIP

French Minister of State for Foreign Trade Matthias Fekl recently said, referring to TTIP, that 'none of our interests is being taken into account in the way we would like'. This was a damning accusation from a high-ranking member of the Government, who also said that there was no desire – and certainly not on the part of France – to reach a deal at any price.

Does the Commission plan to reconsider its position on TTIP and terminate the negotiations?
