

Question for written answer E-004805/2016
to the Commission
Rule 130
Hugues Bayet (S&D)

Subject: World Humanitarian Summit in Istanbul

At the World Humanitarian Summit, held in Istanbul on 23 and 24 May 2016, the United Nations focused attention on the many humanitarian crises afflicting the world today.

Collectively, the European Union and its Member States are the biggest humanitarian aid donors in the world. The Union has also consistently led the way in efforts to achieve a global partnership for humanitarian aid.

At the conclusion of the summit, the Commission promised to turn its commitments into practical action.

What are the priority measures that will be taken?