Subject: Interest-free loans for the most vulnerable groups

Seeking to enhance energy efficiency, the Members of Parliament, in their April 2016 resolution entitled 'Meeting the antipoverty (sic) target in the light of increasing household costs', called on the Member States and the Commission to enable citizens in the most vulnerable groups (the poor, the infirm, and people with a disability) to renovate their homes using interest-free loans.

Bearing that point in mind, will the Commission, when amending Directive 2010/31/EU on the energy performance of buildings or Directive 2012/27/EU on energy efficiency, propose that the above measure be implemented?
