Subject: The European Globalisation Adjustment Fund

The European Union has set up legislative and budgetary instruments to provide additional support to workers who are suffering from the consequences of major structural changes in world trade patterns or of the global financial and economic crisis and to assist their reintegration into the labour market.

Considering that EU financial aid for redundant workers should be dynamic and should be granted as quickly and effectively as possible, the following question arises: when will the Commission review legislation on state aid in order to enable the state to intervene to strengthen socially and environmentally-friendly projects and to support small and medium-sized enterprises and companies that are in a difficulty?
