

Question for written answer E-005647/2016
to the Commission
Rule 130
Siôn Simon (S&D)

Subject: Commission action as a result of successful Written Declarations

The Commission will be aware of the Written Declarations that the European Parliament produces. These texts require a high degree of collaborative effort to compose and collect the required support (half the Members of the European Parliament). As of 11 July 2016, 139 Written Declarations have been opened this Parliamentary term, and only nine have been closed with a majority.

Can the Commission point to a Written Declaration from this parliamentary term that has led to tangible action by the Commission?
