

Question for written answer E-005989/2016
to the Commission
Rule 130
Alberto Cirio (PPE)

Subject: Site of national interest, formerly the 'ACNA' in Cengio

The site managed by the ACNA in Cengio, Liguria, appears to have been rehabilitated after being occupied by chemical companies for over a century.

1. Is the Commission aware of this site and of what has been done so far to rehabilitate it?
2. Are any measures currently being taken to check whether the site complies with EU legislation or, alternatively, to secure such compliance?
3. Can the Commission provide further details with regard to these measures?