

Question for written answer E-006063/2016
to the Commission (Vice-President / High Representative)
Rule 130
Diane Dodds (NI)

Subject: VP/HR - Venezuela-Colombia relations

Given the recent decision by Venezuela to open its border with Colombia for the second time in close succession, in order to allow people to access basic foods and medicines, what steps are being taken at EU level to support a measured and effective strategy toward tackling cross-border crime in the region?