

Question for written answer E-006456/2016
to the Commission
Rule 130
Dominique Martin (ENF)

Subject: Universal income in Finland

On 9 September 2016, Finland is scheduled to officially launch its universal income project. The universal income, set at EUR 560 per month, will replace the existing solidarity arrangements in that country.

As a result, Finland will become the first European Union Member State to establish a universal income system.

Will the Commission use the results of the Finnish model to analyse the impact of a universal income?