

Question for written answer E-008915/2016
to the Commission
Rule 130
Cătălin Sorin Ivan (S&D)

Subject: Euromaidan anniversary

Three years have passed since the Maidan demonstrations and the change of government in Ukraine. Media outlets report that the situation in Ukraine has stagnated and little or nothing has changed. Many young people have been displaced and had their families broken apart as a result of the conflict.

Does the Commission have an analysis of the situation on the ground in Ukraine regarding young people and displaced citizens?