Rule 130

Kazimierz Michał Ujazdowski (ECR)

Subject: Evaluation of effectiveness of financial assistance to Moldova

The Commission has allocated EU financial assistance to Moldova. During debates in Parliament, the good intentions of this cooperation and the importance of the funds being used effectively have often been pointed out.

Is the Commission monitoring the use of the funds after they have been transferred? If so, how?

According to what criteria does the Commission determine whether the funds are used in line with the public good?

Have EU funds also been allocated for reforming the media market in Moldova by taking into account support for TV media that are independent of the government?
