Subject: European Fund for Sustainable Development

Although I welcome the establishment of the European Fund for Sustainable Development, which will allow the creation of a financial tool conducive to the achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals, I believe the Commission needs to clarify the following points:

Are there special conditions for micro, small and medium-sized enterprises which would ensure that these companies have access to the necessary funding, and that the Fund will not serve to benefit only multinational companies?

Should the regulation not be more focused on money laundering, tax evasion and tax avoidance, and aggressive tax planning?
