Subject: Complaint by Uber against the French Government lodged with the Commission

On 25 November 2016 the British newspaper the *Daily Express*¹ reported that President Juncker personally intervened to postpone a decision on a complaint by Uber against the French Government, for fear that it would make political capital for the Front National in the French presidential elections.

Can the Commission confirm the veracity of this article?

How far advanced is Uber's complaint against the French Government? When will it be processed?
