Question for written answer E-001073/2017
to the Commission
Rule 130
Derek Vaughan (S&D)

Subject: The Heineken deal

A deal is reportedly awaiting approval from the Commission and the UK’s Competition and Markets Authority concerning Heineken’s takeover of Punch Taverns.

Can the Commission provide an indication of when a decision on this matter is expected, what the process for approving this type of deal is and which factors are being taken into account?