Subject: Marking and categorisation of tourist accommodation facilities - further questions

The Croatian Minister for Tourism has announced a move to abolish mandatory marking and categorisation of tourist accommodation facilities according to a star rating system. That being the case, and following on from the earlier question (E-004703/2015):

Will any renewed effort be made to establish a common reference point for premium tourist services in Europe, as the Commission initially intended to do, but withdrew the plan because it failed, in 2014, to win sufficient support within the Council?
