Subject: Implementation of the 2007-2013 Human Resources Development OP

The last day of the 2007–2013 Human Resources Development Operational Programme (which the Republic of Croatia started to use on the basis of cohesion policy after joining the EU in late 2013) is approaching on 31 March 2018. In the light of this, can the Commission answer the following:

What is the current status of the implementation process of this programme?

What are the financial indicators which demonstrate the successful implementation of the available funds?
