

Question for written answer E-007886/2017
to the Commission

Rule 130

José Ignacio Salafranca Sánchez-Neyra (PPE)

Subject: Elections in Cambodia

Last week, the European Union announced its decision to suspend funding of the National Election Committee of Cambodia for the 2018 elections, given that it is impossible for there to be any credible elections after the main opposition party was recently outlawed.

What additional action could the European Union take to ensure legitimate elections do take place whilst guaranteeing the democratic participation of all political parties?