

Question for written answer E-001014/2018
to the Council
Rule 130
Bill Etheridge (EFDD)

Subject: Reimbursing the UK for its assets after Brexit

As the UK holds a 12.85 % share in the assets – such as pensions, money in savings, building structures, etc. – of the European Union:

After Brexit, will the UK receive a full reimbursement for the value of the assets that it currently holds in the European Union?