

Question for written answer E-002465/2018
to the Commission

Rule 130

Inmaculada Rodríguez-Piñero Fernández (S&D)

Subject: Use of the 'WEgate' platform for women entrepreneurs

In 2016 the Commission launched an online platform, or one-stop-shop, aimed particularly at women seeking to set up, develop, or expand a business. The platform offers information about, and links to, training courses, mentoring, exchanges of best practice, and opportunities to widen contact networks in the business world.

- 1) How is this platform being publicised and which media are being employed for that purpose?
- 2) Are there any plans to translate the entire website into all of the EU official languages and Spanish in particular?
- 3) What take-up rates have been recorded among Spanish-speaking women, especially as regards businesses run by women living in the Spanish autonomous community of Valencia?
