

Question for written answer E-001518/2019
to the Commission
Rule 130
Pascal Arimont (PPE)

Subject: Dealing with stray dogs in Romania

The protection of stray dogs is not governed by EU regulations and thus remains a matter for Member States alone. However, the media and members of the public are continuing to speak of at times serious wrongdoing as regards the treatment of stray dogs, especially in Romania.

What efforts is the Commission making to improve the situation?