

Question for written answer E-001558/2019
to the Commission
Rule 130
Eva Maydell (PPE)

Subject: Education

There can be no doubt that using educational technologies during the school and pre-school learning process improves the quality and effectiveness of education and training. What progress has been made so far in incorporating these technologies into the education process, and in enabling access to online educational services/portals?