(PE557.179v03-00)

on the proposal for a regulation of the European Parliament and of the Council on the Union Code on Visas (Visa Code) (recast)

Proposal for a regulation

(COM(2014)0164 – C8-0001/2014 – 2014/0094(COD))

Amendment 84

Tanja Fajon

Proposal for a regulation

Recital 2

Text proposed by the Commission

(2) Union policy in the field of visas allowing for stays of up to 90 days in any 180 days is a fundamental component of the creation of a common area without internal borders. The common rules on the conditions and procedures for issuing visas should be governed by the principle of solidarity and mutual confidence between Member States.

Amendment

(2) The common policy on visas is a fundamental component of the creation of a common area without internal borders. The common rules on the conditions and procedures for issuing visas should be governed by the principle of solidarity and mutual confidence between Member States.

Or. en

Justification

A recital should not contain such detailed elements which are part of the enacting provisions in the articles. The recitals should rather lay down the rationale of the main provisions of the act.

Amendment 85

Tanja Fajon

Proposal for a regulation

Recital 3

Text proposed by the Commission

(3) Regulation (EC) No 810/2009 aims, inter alia, to further develop the common visa policy as part of a multi-layer system in order to facilitate legitimate travel and tackle irregular immigration through further harmonisation of legislation and practices.

Amendment

(3) The Union Code on Visas (Visa Code; Regulation (EC) No 810/2009) constitutes a main element of the common policy on visas. It aims at the same time to secure a high level of security, tackle irregular immigration and facilitate legitimate travel. It should contribute to generating growth and be coherent with other Union policies, such as external relations, trade, education, culture and tourism.

Justification

This recital should contain all the aims of the Code which currently are distributed in a number of different recitals.

Proposal for a regulation

Recital 3 a (new)

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

(3a) Regulation (EC) No 810/2009 clarified and simplified the legal framework and greatly modernised and standardised visa procedures. However, as part of the further development of the acquis towards a truly common visa policy procedures and conditions for issuing visas should be further harmonised and their uniform application be reinforced.

Or. en

Justification

This recital should contain a general statement as to the modifications contained in the present review.

Amendment 88

(4) It should also ensure that under certain conditions multiple-entry visas are issued in order to lessen the administrative burden of Member States' consulates and to facilitate smooth travel for frequent or regular travellers. Applicants known to the consulate for their integrity and reliability should as far as possible benefit from a simplified procedure.

Amendment

(4) Further harmonisation is particularly necessary as regards the issuing multiple-entry visas as such visas lessen the administrative burden of Member States' consulates and to facilitate smooth travel for frequent or regular travellers. Applicants known to the consulate for their integrity and reliability should as far as possible benefit from a simplified procedure.

Recital 5

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

(5) Regulation (EC) No 810/2009 clarified and simplified the legal framework and greatly modernised and standardised visa procedures. However, specific provisions that were intended to facilitate procedures in individual cases on the basis of subjective criteria are not sufficiently applied.

Proposal for a regulation

Recital 6

Text proposed by the Commission

(6) A smart visa policy should entail continued security at the external borders whilst ensuring the effective functioning of the Schengen area and facilitating travel opportunities for legitimate travel. The common visa policy should contribute to generating growth and be coherent with other Union policies, such as external relations, trade, education, culture and tourism.

Amendment

(6) A visa policy in keeping with human rights and fundamental freedoms should facilitate travel to the Union by third-country nationals who meet EU entry requirements whilst guaranteeing the free movement of persons and ensuring the effective functioning of the Schengen area and personal safety within the EU. The common visa policy should be coherent with other Union policies, such as freedom of movement and residence in the Member State of choice, external relations, trade, education, culture and tourism.

Proposal for a regulation
Recital 6 a (new)

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

(6a) This Regulation should require Member States to issue transit visas and visas with limited territorial validity to beneficiaries of EU resettlement and relocation programmes and mechanisms as provided for in Article 8 of Directive 2001/55/EC on minimum standards for giving temporary protection in the event of a mass influx of displaced persons and the Regulation of the European Parliament and of the Council establishing a crisis relocation mechanism and amending Regulation (EU) No 604/2013.

Amendment 94
Marie-Christine Vergiat, Barbara Spinelli, Kostas Chrysogonos

Proposal for a regulation
Recital 6 a (new)

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

(6a) The issuing of a visa to a person seeking international protection constitutes a means of allowing such a person to access the territory of the EU and the Member States in a safe manner. When considering consular territorial competence, the admissibility of a visa application or the possibility of issuing a visa with limited territorial validity, consulates should, therefore, pay particular attention to persons seeking international protection. In respect of such persons, Member States should make use of the exceptions provided for in this Regulation on humanitarian grounds or in order to meet their international obligations, in particular the 1951

Convention relating to the Status of Refugees (1951 Geneva Convention) and other relevant European or international instruments.

In order to enable immigration and border controls to be carried out as smoothly as possible at the external borders during the aforementioned periods, Member States should provide for prior on-line registration for visas to be issued at the external border.

Or. de

Justification

The issuing of visas at the external borders should remain the exception; thus it should be possible to issue them only, for example, in connection with major sports events or other events of international significance (e.g. world exhibitions). In order to avoid long queues at the external borders, where of course border control officials have directly to monitor fulfilment of the preconditions for issuing a visa, prior online registration should be facilitated.

TITLE II
AIRPORT TRANSIT VISA

Amendment

Article 3

Third-country nationals required to hold an airport transit visa

1. Nationals of the third countries listed in Annex III shall be required to hold an airport transit visa when passing through the international transit areas of airports situated on the territory of the Member States.

2. The Commission shall be empowered to adopt delegated acts in accordance with Article 48 concerning amendments to the list of the third countries set out in Annex III.

Where in the case of emerging risks, imperative grounds of urgency so require, the procedure provided for in Article 49 shall apply to delegated acts adopted pursuant to this paragraph.

3. Where there is a sudden and substantial influx of irregular immigrants, a Member State may require nationals of third countries other than those referred to in paragraph 1 to hold an airport transit visa when passing through the international transit areas of airports situated on its territory. The duration of such a measure shall not exceed 12 months. The scope and duration of the airport transit visa requirement shall not exceed what is strictly necessary to respond to the sudden and substantial influx of irregular immigrants.

4. Where a Member State plans to introduce the airport transit visa requirement in accordance with paragraph 3, it shall as soon as possible notify the Commission, and shall provide the following information:

(a) the reason for the planned airport transit visa requirement, substantiating the sudden and substantial influx of irregular immigrants;

(b) the scope and duration of the planned

introduction of the airport transit visa requirement.

5. Following the notification by the Member State concerned in accordance with paragraph 4, the Commission may issue an opinion.

6. The Member State may prolong the application of the airport transit visa requirement only once where the lifting of the requirement would lead to a substantial influx of irregular migrants. Paragraph 3 shall apply to such prolongation.

7. The Commission shall, on an annual basis, inform the European Parliament and the Council about the implementation of this Article.

8. The following categories of persons shall be exempt from the requirement to hold an airport transit visa provided for in paragraphs 1 and 3:

a) holders of a valid uniform visa, touring visa, national long-stay visa or residence permit issued by a Member State;

b) third-country nationals holding a valid residence permit issued by a Member State which does not take part in the adoption of this Regulation or by a Member State which does not yet apply the provisions of the Schengen acquis in full, or third-country nationals holding one of the valid residence permits listed in Annex IV issued by Andorra, Canada, Japan, San Marino or the United States of America guaranteeing the holder's unconditional readmission, or holding a residence permit for the Caribbean parts of the Kingdom of the Netherlands (Aruba, Curaçao, Sint Maarten, Bonaire, Sint Eustatius and Saba) ;

c) third-country nationals holding a valid visa for a Member State which does not take part in the adoption of this Regulation, or for a Member State which does not yet apply the provisions of the Schengen acquis in full, or for a country party to the Agreement on the European Economic Area, or for Canada, Japan or the United States of America, or holders of a valid visa for the Caribbean parts of the Kingdom of the Netherlands (Aruba, Curaçao, Sint Maarten, Bonaire, Sint Eustatius and Saba), when travelling to the issuing country or to any other third country, or when, having used the visa, returning from the issuing country;

d) family members of citizens of the Union as referred to in Article 3 of Directive 2004/38/EC ;

e) holders of diplomatic , service, official or special passports;

f) flight crew members who are nationals of a contracting Party to the Chicago Convention on International Civil Aviation.

9. The Commission shall be empowered to adopt delegated acts in accordance with Article 48 concerning the amendments to the list of valid residence permits entitling the holder to transit through the airports of Member States without being required to hold an airport transit visa, set out in Annex IV.

Justification

As a visa allows a third-country national to circulate within the Schengen area and as the rules laid down in the Visa Code are common rules the concept of "responsible Member State" should be abolished. Instead of using resources to determine the Member State responsible these resources should be better used for the examination of visa applications. Heinz K. Becker, Monika Hohlmeier

Proposal for a regulation

Article 8 – paragraph 1

Text proposed by the Commission

1. Applications may be lodged six months before and no later than 15 calendar days before the start of the intended visit.

Amendment

1. Applications may be lodged six months before and no later than 15 calendar days before the start of the intended visit, with the proviso that, in justified individual cases, the consulate may waive the latter time limit.

Justification

The proposed time limit requiring visa applications to be lodged 15 calendar days before the start of the visit would make it impossible to travel on justified ad hoc visits (e.g. on account of the death of a relative or travel on business which has become urgent). In justified individual cases, therefore, the consulate should be permitted to waive this time limit.

Amendment

Article 13a

Travel medical insurance

1. Applicants for a uniform visa for one or more entries shall prove that they are in possession of adequate and valid travel medical insurance to cover any expenses which might arise in connection with repatriation for medical reasons or in the event of death, urgent medical attention and/or emergency hospital treatment, during their stay(s) on the territory of the Member States.

2. Applicants for a uniform visa for more than two entries ('multiple entries') shall prove that they are in possession of adequate and valid travel medical insurance covering the period of their first intended visit.

In addition, such applicants shall sign the statement, set out in the application form, declaring that they are aware of the need to be in possession of travel medical insurance for subsequent stays.

3. The insurance shall be valid throughout the territory of the Member States and cover the entire period of the person's intended stay or transit. The minimum coverage shall be EUR 30 000.

When a visa with limited territorial validity covering the territory of more than one Member State is issued, the insurance cover shall be valid at least in the Member States concerned.

4. Applicants shall, in principle, take out the insurance in their country of residence. Where this is not possible, they shall seek to obtain insurance in any other country.

When another person takes out insurance in the name of the applicant, the conditions set out in paragraph 3 shall apply.

5. When assessing whether the insurance cover is adequate, consulates shall ascertain whether claims against the insurance company would be recoverable in a Member State.

6. The insurance requirement may be considered to have been met where it is established that an adequate level of insurance may be presumed in the light of the applicant's professional situation. The exemption from presenting proof of travel medical insurance may concern particular professional groups, such as seafarers, who are already covered by travel medical insurance as a result of their professional activities.

7. Holders of diplomatic passports shall be exempt from the requirement to hold travel medical insurance.

Proposal for a regulation

Article 21 – paragraph 2 – subparagraph 1

Text proposed by the Commission

A visa may be issued for one or multiple entries. The period of validity of a multiple entry visa shall not exceed five years. The period of validity of a multiple entry visa may extend beyond the period of validity of the passport to which the visa is affixed.

Amendment

A visa may be issued for one or multiple entries. The period of validity of a multiple entry visa shall not exceed ten years. The period of validity of a multiple entry visa may extend beyond the period of validity of the passport to which the visa is affixed.

Or. en

Justification

There are many examples of multiple entry visas for long periods of up to 10 years. For instance, USA and Canada give this facilitation to Chinese citizens. Providing multiple entry visas of 10 years to legitimate travellers will help Europe to continue being the world's number one tourist destination.

European humanitarian visa

1. Persons seeking international protection may apply for a European humanitarian visa directly at any consulate or embassy of the Member States. Such a humanitarian visa shall allow the person to travel to the territory of Member State issuing the visa in order to lodge an application for international protection as defined in Article 2(a) of Directive 2011/95/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council of 13 December 2011 on standards for the qualification of third-country nationals or stateless persons as beneficiaries of international protection, for a uniform status for refugees or for persons eligible for subsidiary protection, and for the content of the protection granted.

2. When lodging the application for a European humanitarian visa the applicant shall provide the items referred to in Article 9(3) (a) to (e) and a justification for the need for international protection. This justification shall contain elements, including where possible documentary evidence, to justify the need for international protection under the terms of Directive 2011/95/EU. If any of the items referred to in Article 9(3) (a) to (e) cannot be provided the applicant shall provide reasons as to why this is not possible. Article 13 does not apply.

3. Consulates and embassies shall examine the application for a humanitarian visa and undertake an assessment of the justification provided by the applicant related to the need for international protection, if necessary in consultation with other national authorities.

4. When a consulate or an embassy considers that an applicant is in need for international protection it shall decide to issue a European humanitarian visa.

5. European humanitarian visas shall be issued as visas with limited territorial validity. Article 22 (2) - (5) shall apply.

6. The provisions of Articles 10, 11, 12, 14, 24, 25, 26, 27 and 31 shall apply.
