

Question for written answer P-007567/2014
to the Commission
Rule 130
Emma McClarkin (ECR)

Subject: Double taxation

It has been brought to my attention that Cyprus demands full taxation on cars imported from the EU, despite owners having already paid the full tax in the country of origin. My constituent who has faced this problem was informed that Cyprus pays a fine to the EU for continuing with the taxation, as this is seen as a source of revenue for the country.

Could the Commission please clarify how this situation is being monitored or whether my constituent has been misinformed?