

Question for written answer P-004615/2016
to the Council
Rule 130
Eleni Theoharous (ECR)

Subject: Threat by Turkey to suspend the agreement on refugees

Turkey has threatened to suspend the agreement on the refugees if the EU refuses to make concessions on changing the law on terrorism. If Turkey acts on this threat, will the EU consider taking action? If so, what action and at what level?

Does the European Union have a Plan B?

Will it stop opening new chapters?