Subject: The Union's resettlement programme

The European Union is resettling people (refugees, asylum-seekers, migrants, etc.) from countries on its borders, such as Turkey, under various programmes.

1. How many people per month have been resettled since 2015 and on what legal basis?
2. To which countries have these people been admitted in what numbers (please indicate in both proportional and absolute terms)?
3. From which countries have the people come who have been resettled, and what are their nationalities (please indicate in both proportional and absolute terms)?
